Scenic Rim day walks

Walks that rarely feel a footfall

A season of eco interpreted day hikes in the Scenic Rim's national parks and private valleys, May to October, eight to ten walkers at a time. Pick your dates from the program.

DURATION A full day	GRADE Easy to challenging	GROUP SIZE Maximum 10 walkers	PRICE $100 per person
---	---	---	--

Included

- Experienced and qualified guides with Wilderness First Aid certification
- Emergency equipment including a PLB
- Hot cuppa at lunch and a home baked treat
- Gear list appropriate to the walk
- Interpretation of flora fauna geology and history

Not included

- Transport to the trailhead
- Cash fees for land managers on some private property walks

Fitness and who it suits

Walks are spaced through the season to allow recovery and some training between them. Keep up regular walking in between to hold your fitness for the next hike, and read each walk's notes carefully before reserving.

Grade: Easy to challenging. Each walk on the program carries its own grade. Few Scenic Rim walks are easy walks on graded trails.

This suits you if

- You want to learn to bushwalk safely in a small group
- You enjoy stopping for what's underfoot and overhead
- You can be out in the bush for a full day

Probably not for you if

- You want a fast paced race to a destination
- You're carrying an injury on a walk graded challenging
- You plan to fly a drone

Meeting point and getting there

Meet: Trailheads within an hour of Boonah, set per walk

1 hour drive from Brisbane

Nearest airport: Brisbane

Questions

Do I book the whole season?

No. Do as many or as few walks as you wish. Reserve the dates you want and pay for each walk 14 days beforehand.

What if I'm a beginner?

Call Teresa to pick a good starting walk. The easier grades on the program are the place to begin.

Are prices the same for every walk?

Regular day walks are $100 per person. Camps and some private property walks are priced differently and the program shows the price against each date.

How to book

Send a request to book from the Scenic Rim day walks page and Teresa will confirm within 24 hours. Groups are maximum 10 walkers. $100 per person.
