

Scenic Rim Winter Walking Weekend

Walks that rarely feel a footfall

Three days of bushwalking in very different places from a base at Boonah's Commercial Hotel, with a degustation dinner at Blume and breakfasts at Arthur Clive's Bakery. The inaugural August 2026 weekend filled; the next dates are to be announced.

DURATION	GRADE	GROUP SIZE	PRICE
3 days, 2 nights	Moderate +	6 to 10 walkers	$1,695 per person twin share

Day by day

DAY 1

Ivory's Rock Circuit, Peak Crossing

Gather at Peak Mountain View Park for a welcome and introductions, then a short drive to the walk start at Ivory Rock Conference Centre. About 8 km and 4 hours of moderate walking: a loop track beneath the prominent peaks to several lookouts across the forested valleys, through geological epochs and different forest types. Packed lunch and a cuppa at the high point, then an easy return by fire trail. Settle in at the Commercial Hotel in Boonah and walk to Blume for an intimate degustation dinner of local produce.

Campbell's Folly, private property

Car pool 36 km each way to The Rock property, where cave dotted cliffs tower above the family home: home to peregrine falcons, rock wallabies and many unique plants, part of the Mt Gillies Rhyolite that outlies Mt Barney. The approach crosses rolling paddocks with views of Mt Lindesay from every angle, then climbs the wooded western slope to the top and the vista. About 4 hours of walking plus lunch, with no formed track. Return the same way. Breakfast at Arthur Clive's Bakery, packed lunch, dinner at the hotel.

Off track waterfalls, Main Range National Park

Car pool 45 km each way to Teviot Gap. At 800 metres above sea level it's a little cooler under the rainforest canopy. An old logging road leads through established forest, then the group steps off the track into a gentle world, soft underfoot, with towering trees and shafts of sunlight. Millennia of rainfall have carved streams through the Main Range basalt, revealing incredible geology at the waterfalls. 5 to 8 km and 5 to 6 hours, moderate plus. Back to Boonah for farewells.

Fitness and who it suits

Day two is an off track peak walk with rough, rocky terrain and cliffs in abundance. You'll be expected to stay with the group.

Grade: Moderate +. Off track peak walking with rough, rocky terrain on day two, and no formed track. Cliffs in abundance.

This suits you if

- You want three very different walks in one weekend
- You enjoy good food and country pub comfort after a day out
- You're happy on rough ground with no formed track

Probably not for you if

- You need graded tracks all the way
- You'd rather camp than stay in a hotel
